

KlettNET - Terms of Use

Internal/professional character of the Extranet

- KlettNET, which is provided by Ernst Klett Aktiengesellschaft, is available only to employees of companies within the Klett Group.
- Ernst Klett Aktiengesellschaft publishes and sends current information to all employees via KlettNET.

Personal profile

- All personal details provided during registration are stored in KlettNET and can be administered independently by the user within the personal settings.
- Users are required to keep their personal data up to date.

Unauthorised use

- Users may only log in and use KlettNET using their own name. It is not possible to register or post anonymously or using nicknames or pseudonyms.
- Users are not permitted to pass on their login details to third parties or to publish or forward information, posts, files and personal data without the consent of other users.